SHOWCASE 2024

Welcome introductions

On behalf of London College of Music, University of West London, I am delighted to welcome you to Showcase 2024. We are proud to present to you our graduating students from the BA (Hons) Acting course. This year's recent productions Twelfth Night and Three Sisters represented triumphs of hard work, ingenuity, and talent, delivering wonderful theatre, and developing new approaches to the craft, which offer our graduate performers an insight into the demands of the industry. Forthcoming productions this Spring include Ink and A Monster Calls.

For details of upcoming events at London College of Music, please visit: www.uwl.ac.uk/LCM

I hope you enjoy Showcase 2024 and continue to support and celebrate the work of our Acting students.

Professor Nicholas McKay

Director of London College of Music, University of West London

The BA (Hons) Acting course at the London College of Music offers a rigorous training in traditional acting methodologies. Our student graduates have a strong grounding in Stanislavski, Chekhov, Hagen, and Meisner, while the course also exposes them to non-realist or heightened performance styles such as Brecht and Shakespeare. In addition to a well-rounded training in the craft of performance.

Their dedication, talent, and passion for the work has been evident in each of their public performances this year, and I am proud to support them as they take this next step to join the industry as professional actors.

Dr Isla Hall

Course Leader, BA (Hons) Acting
